

THE LIMITLESS CREED

Those that choose to live life without limits do so with relentless passion and commitment. They are assassins of mediocrity, lovers of wisdom, and rebels with a cause. They choose to live life without limits not only for themselves but to lead by example and show others the abundance that this world has to offer. Where do you stand?

I PROMISE TO LIVE MY LIFE THROUGH...

- 1 Vividness and Vibrancy (experience): Opening up to all experiences. To delve into human potential and spirit. Physical, emotional, the good, bad, and ugly. Long story short... The more experiences the better.
- 2 Self-awareness, confidence (solitude): To be completely familiar with who I am so that when any new experiences arrive I embrace it with eyes wide-open and enthusiasm.
- 3 Love (intimacy): To impact others lives in a positive way. To dedicate my time to a cause greater than myself and spread enthusiasm for life to those generous enough to let me close.
- 4 Empowerment (responsibility): Spiderman said it best "with great power comes great responsibility." To take responsibility for my actions and realize that as small as they may seem, my decisions on a daily basis have a ripple effect on the lives of others and the world around us. What I do matters, always.
- 5 Transformation (identity loss): The ability to let go of who I think I am and accept that I can always be someone new. The best thing about life is that I can completely re-invent myself in an instant. I just have to let allow myself to let go of the old me. To not be defined by societies ideals of what my life is supposed to be like. To create my own path, my own story, my own dream. To never let it be defined by someone else.... EVER!
- 6 Mastery (excellence): To fulfill the biggest dreams that I have for myself. To continue living by my own morals, values, and priorities. To understand that failures are opportunities for better experiences in the future.
- 7 Energy and Humor (impermanence): To understand that the world around me is forever evolving and changing. To take hardships with a grain of salt, laugh as often as possible, and to stay committed to having as much gosh darn fun as possible on this crazy journey.
- 8 I am unique: Take this space to define your own code of ethics. We are all different with varying beliefs. Define yourself right here. What is important to you. How will you live your life?

Today I am committed to removing any and all personal limitations I have ever placed upon myself. To fulfilling my dreams, my passions, my life as I see fit. The pursuit of excellence is much better than the acceptance of mediocrity.
